BASSANO HAS BUMPER CROP

According to George Mashford, grain buyer at the Alberta Pacific Grain Co. elevator here, the farmers in the Bassano district will have an average wheat yield of 35 bushels per acre this season and the predominating grade will be No. 3 Northern. There seems to have been no damage from early frost in this district but wheat grown in the districts north of Bassano is expected to grade no better than No. 4 or No. 5.

Mr. Mashford stated that the protein content of Bassano wheat is also higher this year, testing 12.3 compared with 11.5 in 1955.

He said that harvesting conditions were ideal and estimated that wheat harvesting was approximately 50% completed in this district.

The higher protein content will make the wheat more desirable for milling purposes and might create a higher demand for wheat this year.

LOCAL BALL TEAM WINS AT HAT

The Senior Baseball team travelled to Medicine Hat last Sunday and played two exhibition games against the Medicine Hat Hot Shots.

Bassano won the first game by a score of 5 to 4 and the second game resulted in a tie game, the score being 9 - 9.

The Bassano team will play an exhibition game against the Old Timers at Bassano next Sunday afternoon. This could be the best game of the year.

LOCAL FOOTBALL CLUB ORGANIZED

A team composed of Bassano and Cluny players has been organized to play Junior football and the first game will be played next Sunday afternoon at Cluny. Their opponents will be the club from Hanna. All football enthusiasts should plan to attend this game and cheer the local club.

It is hoped that some of the home games may be held in Bassano later on in the season.

CPR BANQUET HONORS LOCALS

A CPR superannuation banquet was held at Medicine Hat recently in honor of Harry Phipps of Bassano, Mr. Gamble of Wimbourne and W.F. MacBeth of Langdon, all of whom have retired. It is regrettable that Mr. Phipps and Mr. Gamble were unable to attend.

The banquet was opened by a prayer led by D. O'Coffee after which the chairman, J.W. Little, local chairman of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, gave a short address. Mrs. J.W. Little presented Mrs. MacBeth with a corsage.

After dinner speeches were made by O.A. Baxter, local chairman from Calgary, and J.A. Brown, local chairman from Edmonton. J.R. Johnston, General Chairman of the ORT at Winnipeg, presented Mr. MacBeth with a card and a gift of money. Mr. and Mrs. MacBeth replied and both gave a short talk reminiscing on their associations with the CPR over the years.

Harry Beeber of Strathmore, formerly station agent at Bassano for several years, was presented with a 50 year gold pass in recognition of his long service with the CPR.

An enjoyable show of magical tricks was then performed by a local couple and everyone was thoroughly amazed at the results of some of them.

Dancing was then enjoyed by about 100 persons and everyone voted it a very successful affair.

TOWN TOPICS

The meeting in the school on Friday, which had been called to discuss the forming of a Handicraft Centre in Bassano, has been postponed to a later date due to the illness of Miss Archibald, who was coming from Edmonton to represent the Department at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dundas and Gary and Mr. and Mrs. D. Grant, Sharon and Cameron were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Colbe recently.

*****

E. De Freese narrowly escaped serious injury when a tractor he was passing suddenly made a left turn and collided with the rear wheels of his truck. Both truck and tractor were overturned and the truck was damaged extensively. The accident occurred at the Rosemary corner.

*****

A surprise shower was held at the home of Mrs. J. Colbe recently for Mrs. Laurence Maurer (nee Rosalie Bell). A lovely array of gifts were presented by the 31 ladies in attendance.

Games were played and a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. J. Goodrich and Mrs. J. Colbe.

The Town Foreman of Bassano, Bill Rutschke, complains that someone has removed the red reflectors from every one of the road block signs protecting the sewer excavations in town. This is a petty type of stealing as far as the value of the reflectors is concerned but it could result in a serious accident at night if some one failed to see the road blocks in time. If one of these reflectors is found in someone's possession, it could lead to a theft charge. Everyone would be very happy to find these reflectors back on the road blocks again very soon.

We are sorry to report that Rev Clare will preach his farewell sermon at the Knox Presbyterian Church next Sunday, after which he is planning to leave Bassano. Dr. Clare has been a popular minister as well as a highly respected citizen and we will miss him in Bassano.

The Bassano Evangelical Free Church will hold a special opening dedication service in the new addition to the church in the near future. The date has not been definitely set as yet but due notice will be given as to the date of the event.

*****

Several Bassano residents motored to Wardlaw on Saturday to attend the charivari in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mooney (nee Katherine Steinbach).

They report a large crowd attended and a wonderful time was had by all.

*****

Don't forget the Saturday night dances held in the Bassano Hall. Good music and the admittance charge will suit everyone's pocketbook. Come and have a good time for a few hours.

*****

Mr. and Mrs. "Pat" McPhoe have returned from a two weeks holiday in Saskatchewan.

*****

The signs of the various merchants located on main street are receiving a face lifting as a sign painter is giving each individual sign his expert attention. The renovating and painting that the business establishments on main street have received this year is beginning to improve the appearance of the business section of town considerably. It is surprising what a little time and effort will do for a town.

Try the "sweater trick" for extra points

The point-after-touchdown and field goal specialist is a big scoring threat on any football team. Almost invariably, you find him up at the top of the scoring race, and frequently his accuracy decides the outcome of a close game.

One of the most important things the placement kicker must learn to do is keep his head down and his eye on the ball. There are two reasons. First, he must watch the ball to make sure that his foot connects with the right spot. And second, to look up and at the charging defensive linemen almost always rattles the kicker and causes him to miss.

Lou Groza, of the Cleveland Browns, one of the great field goal kickers of all time, used a special trick to make himself keep his head down while he was learning his art. Groza used to hold the neck of his sweater between his teeth while he practised. In this way, he had to keep his head down, and after a great deal of practise he found that the head-down position had become automatic.

So if you're the point-after-touchdown specialist on your team—or you would like to be—why not try Groza's stunt? It will more than pay off in accuracy.

Don't let stiffness stop you

Something that discourages many people who have started on a fitness campaign is the stiff, aching muscles you get a day or two after you have started exercising. It's a very natural reaction, but it has the unfortunate effect of causing many people to give up their program and forget about their fitness ambitions.

There are two things to remember. First, many people start their exercising too enthusiastically. They let their exuberance and ambition carry them away. The result, naturally, is stiffness. So be sure to start slowly—do only a few mild exercises the first day, building up gradually over a few weeks. That's the best way to avoid stiffness and keep your enthusiasm high at the same time.

The second thing to remember is that if you do become stiff, the best medicine is the hair of the dog that bit you. Repeat the exercises that caused the stiffness because by doing this your muscles quickly become adjusted to them and a lot of the soreness will be eliminated quickly.

If the aches and pains are particularly bothersome, a couple of hot baths will help a great deal, too.

NOW I'VE HEARD EVERYTHING DEPT.

So everything happens to you? Well, maybe you just think it does. For instance:

Have you ever been shot by your car door? By your dog? By a fish?

Have you ever swallowed your toothbrush? Has your dog driven your automobile? Has your two year old son ever driven your car?

Have you proudly named your place Dew Drop Inn, only to have it do just that - in the lake?

All these odd happenings and many others were uncovered by the National Safety Council in its annual roundup of freak accidents. Here's the rundown on the dizzy doings in 1955:

Gene Scott, of Rushville, Nebraska, had hoped his hunting trip would turn up something special. It did. He got shot by his car door. Gene was getting out of the car when a gust of wind blew the door shut on his coat pocket. In the pocket was a rifle shell. You can bet the next hunt will find Gene astride a good old-fashioned doorless horse.

Some fish stories are greeted by raised eyebrows. But when Bobby Bright of Gonzales, Texas, reported that he had been shot by a fish, no one could doubt him. He had the fish, the gun and the wound to prove it! A freshly caught catfish flopped around in the bottom of Bobby's boat, struck the trigger of his rifle and shot him in the arm.

And in Detroit, Mrs. Dorothy Gazzeny brushed her teeth so vigorously she swallowed her toothbrush. Fortunately she had another brush and could finish cleaning her teeth.

At least two dogs tried their hand (paw) at driving the family automobile during 1955. A Doberman pinscher in Fort Wayne, Ind., and a boxer in Black River Falls, Wis. Both ended up by crashing into something. They also ended up in the dog house.

The Dew Drop Inn at Port Huron, Michigan, lived up to its name during a wild wind and rain storm and dropped into Anchor Bay. One brink too many, I guess.

Traffic experts say it's safe to go on a green light but try to tell that to motorist E. T. Drake Jr. of Atlanta. As Drake dutifully obeyed an overhead traffic light that flashed him a green go-ahead signal, the light flashed red at the top of his car and sent him to hospital. Drake saw red!

And in Copenhagen, Mrs. Elsie Sorensen and Karen Kirk Lassen couldn't resist the dance music coming out of a radio in the Old Folks Home, and decided to try the mambo. They both landed in the hospital with broken legs. Both dancers were 80.

While operating his motor boat, John Lysander of New York was slightly injured by being run down by an elephant. The elephant was being towed on floats by Lysander's motor boat as a circus stunt and, when the boat's engine failed suddenly the momentum of the huge beast carried it into the boat. We hope the elephant lost his driver's license for careless driving!

SALES TAX FOR ALBERTA SOON?

E.W. Hinman, Alberta's provincial treasurer and formerly the province's minister of municipal affairs, has attended several public meetings recently and, in each case, has made a speech on the topic of "A New Tax Deal For Alberta". Mr. Hinman claims (and rightly so, the costs of services to residents of Alberta now have reached the level where new means of financing them are necessary if they are to be held at the same level or increased. While protesting that he is not advocating the levying of a sales tax in Alberta (similar to the 3% tax levied in both Saskatchewan and British Columbia) it is worthy of note that he mentions it as a tax possibility at every opportunity. ## New radioactive finds reported

One of the geological survey parties of the Department of Mineral Resources, working in the Precambrian part of Saskatchewan, reports the finding of a number of radioactive pegmatites on islands in Manitowish Lake.

The main zone of pegmatites lies 10 miles south of the junction of the Reindeer and Churchill Rivers, and 85 miles ENE of the settlement of La Ronge. The radioactive pegmatites occur in a zone five miles long and a half mile wide. Four surface samples, assayed radio-metrically by the Geological Survey of Canada, Ottawa, ran .16, .078, .086, and .063 percent U3O8 respectively.

Geological sketch maps of the area on a scale of one-half mile to one inch, showing the location of 14 radioactive occurrences, are available at 10 cents each from the Mineral Resources Department Mining Recording Offices at Regina, Prince Albert, Flin Flon, La Ronge and Uranium City. At the time of this news release, no mineral claims were registered on these mineral occurrences.

WEEKLY BIBLE COMMENT

INTERPRETIVE TASK EARLY CHRISTIANS HAD DIFFICULT

The early Christian writers had the task of explaining the Christian faith in relation to the religion in which many of the disciples had been brought up. In the thoughts of Paul and other Christian writers, there was no breach between Judaism and Christianity. They thought of their Christian experience as a fulfillment of the faith and practice to which they had been accustomed.

Deep in this former faith and practice had been the emphasis upon blood sacrifice. It was part of the Jewish ritual. In common with almost all religions, the conception of blood sacrifice and blood covenant played an essential part.

Then came the sacrifice of Christ upon the cross, and the Christian teaching relating this sacrifice to the Jewish ritual and practice. This, in the Christian thought,

Larger volume of oil delivered through pipe lines

Volume of oil delivered through Canadian pipe lines was up sharply in June and the first six months of this year as compared with a year earlier. Deliveries were 20,122,735 barrels in June versus 18,111,367 a year ago and 129,428,238 barrels in the January-June period versus 103,662,064.

Half-year deliveries were as follows by provinces: British Columbia, 19,901,962 barrels (23,354,047 a year earlier); Alberta, 8,120,674 (8,345,927); Saskatchewan, 8,351,982; Manitoba, 34,002,769 (23,228,643); Ontario, 21,416,926 (18,376,834); and Quebec, 37,633,925 (32,588,794).

marked a new covenant.

The salvation of men was no longer to be won by the shedding of the blood of sacrificial animals.

Salvation was rather through the sacrifice of Christ.

This is a lesson of mystery which it is not easy either to understand or to explain.

A great theologian has said, "What Christ is on the cross, God eternally is."

The idea of Christianity and of the New Testament is that for our salvation no sacrifice is needed but that of a sincere and contrite heart.

God is not to be appeased. He is Himself through Christ the appeaser, inviting us to receive His grace and accept the sacrifice made through love.

HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING

There were over fifty in attendance when the Bassano Home and School Association held its 1st meeting of the fall term on Monday evening. A welcome was extended to the new members of the teaching staff of the Bassano school.

The newly elected president, L.C. Spivey, introduced the members of the Executive Committee to the audience. He then called upon the principal of the school, W. Barabash, to introduce the members of the teaching staff.

It was reported that a new diving board for the swimming pool had been purchased with funds which were raised by Mrs. Ned Toole's recreation project.

Plans regarding the formation of a "Cub" pack were briefly discussed. The consensus of opinion was that the matter be postponed until a permanent meeting place for such an organization can be obtained.

R. Armstrong stated that four rooms of the new school building will probably be ready for occupancy by the high school students about October 15th.

It was decided that the membership fee in the Bassano Home and School Association remain at one dollar.

Vera Rutschke was awarded the Bassano Home and School Association $50.00 scholarship award for her fine scholastic record during the 1955-56 school year. Miss Rutschke has already commenced her nurses' training course at the Calgary General Hospital. The members voted to continue the awarding of the annual scholarship of $50.00.

Mrs. Maude Knight was elected as chairman of the Resolutions Committee.

Following the adjournment of the meeting, the Program Convenor, Mrs. E. Schelske, conducted a most interesting group discussion with the teachers and parents on the subject of home work for pupils. The topic evoked a varied expression of opinion. It was finally concluded that the formal home work should begin in about grade seven. However there should be a gradual "leading up" to the idea of definitely assigned home work with occasional simple assignments of various kinds in the primary and intermediate grades. These might even begin as early as grade one when little tots are asked to bring pictures to class.

Following the informal discussion, a delightful lunch was served buffet style from a beautifully appointed table, which was covered with a lace cloth. In the centre of the table was an arrangement of sweet peas and tall red tapers. Hostesses for the evening were the Social Convenors, Mrs. C. Goring and Mrs. F. Syroid, who were ably assisted by Mrs. L. Spivey, Mrs. J. Block, Mrs. E. Schelske and Mrs. K. Rust.

The next meeting of the Bassano Home and School Association will be held on October 15th.
